New Faces Coming to the ECHO Team!

We're excited to announce that we are currently in the process of growing ECHO's team of talented bilingual spokespersons who help to make our work possible. These individuals will be trained in on being television hosts, translating materials, captioning ECHO programs, and doing voiceover recordings and public service announcements. So keep an eye and ear out for new spokespersons! Toward the end of the month, we will be posting their bios to the ECHO website here.

ECHO hosts two of these training sessions each year for new recruits to ECHO's team of bilingual spokespersons. If you or someone you know is interested in being an ECHO spokesperson send an email to info@echominnesota.org.

ECHO Executive Director Presents in Wash. D.C.

On Monday the 10th, Lillian McDonald, ECHO's Executive Director presented to a live audience in Washington D.C. at HHS's 5th Annual Public Health Emergency Medical Countermeasures Enterprise. She made a special appearance on the "Building Community Resilience" Panel to discuss ECHO's unique service to non-English speaking individuals in the event of an emergency and also as an educational tool in non-emergencies.
